

7th April – please feel welcome to arrive 12pm onwards for an informal afternoon and evening

8th April – Saturday morning

- activate a park, summit or beach (optional)

Saturday Afternoon – 2pm to 4.30pm

Presenter	Topic
Paul VK5PAS	World Wide Flora Fauna (WWFF) Award
Paul VK5PAS	VK5 National & Conservation Parks Award
Tony VK3VTH	Keith Roget Memorial National Parks Award
Peter VK3PF	Have fun with SOTA

- We plan on having a display table with information on these awards
- Equipment displays and antennas
- Well known portable operators Ron VK3AFW, Paul VK5PAS, Peter VK3PF & Tony VK3VTH will all be on-hand to answer questions and discuss these awards, as well as their equipment and how they go about enjoying these facets of the hobby. Enjoy a casual beer and chat about portable operating and awards after these presentations.
- A car horn sounding the letter C (-.-) will signify a 5 minute warning signal prior to commencement of presentations
- Please bring your own chair and refreshments to the presentations

Saturday Evening – 6pm onwards

- Informal Antenna comparisons
- Awards for the best portable setup
- Door prize presentation
- Camp fire & social chit-chat, maybe some music
- We encourage a low RF noise environment – please limit the use of generators (especially after 6pm when the awards program will be held).

Sunday Morning – 10.30am – 12 midday

Presenter	Topic
Brenton VK3YB – delivered by Chris VK3QB	WSPR – Building and operating the Ultimate3 qrp labs kit. A practical and interesting project. Great introduction to low power digital modes and studying propagation.
Ian VK3BUF	Auxiliary power in your car

Sunday Afternoon

- Hang around camp – socialise, compare equipment, relax
- Activate a nearby park, summit or beach

3pm Get up close and personal with the cows – those interested can come and visit a small milking dairy in operation (numbers will be limited and there are physical demands and risks associated with this activity). This activity may be cancelled at short notice.

Feel welcome to camp over Sunday evening. We ask that you vacate Antennapalooza by 12midday on Monday 10th April.

Remember you are just 4 kms from Foster Town; IGA and Foodworks as well as a good Pizza, hamburger and fish n chips take-away on 5682 2743

Safety – your safety and welfare is important to us.

- We request all attendees to complete and sign the Registration Sheet.
- The Event Safety Officer will have responsibility to request unsafe or potentially dangerous activities or hazards to be addressed. By attending the event you agree to this condition. Should you become aware of any hazards please alert the Safety Officer immediately (call in on 145.450 or phone 0429 187 593)
- A basic first aid kit will be located at the camp kitchen.

For more information:

www.antenapalooza.org.au

www.ggrec.org.au

Facebook – search for Gippsland Gate Radio & Electronics Club

Email: vk3qb@hotmail.com

Phone: 0429 187 593